

Amanda Tropiano

PRINCIPAL PLANNER

Amanda Tropiano is a principal planner with De Novo Planning Group and is responsible for leading the firm's Southern California practice. With over 11 years of professional planning experience in the region, Amanda has successfully managed a wide variety of land use and environmental planning projects for public and private sector clients, including numerous General Plans, specific plans, corridor plans, strategic plans, sustainability programs, visioning projects, transit-oriented development plans, zoning documents, outreach programs, and CEQA projects. Amanda consistently brings to the table her passion, creativity, and strategic thinking to make sure every project exceeds her client's expectations. Amanda also supports the land use due diligence efforts of clients throughout southern California and assists with navigating public agency planning procedures, reviewing existing regulatory direction, facilitating the entitlement process, and serving as a liaison between public agencies and private developers.
